+ Description

This hike is a lovely adventure through the picturesque landscapes of the Bruche Valley forest. You'll start at the Rothau train station and follow a trail towards Fréconrupt. The route takes you through verdant forests and crystal-clear streams, with breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains. At the halfway point, you'll pass by Fréconrupt, an Alsatian village in the heart of nature. The hike is of moderate difficulty and suitable for all levels of walker.
