+ Description

Food lovers beware! The big egg hunt takes place on Monday April 1, from 9:30am to 6pm, in the exceptional setting of Lichtenberg Castle.

A shower of chocolate eggs floods the Château de Lichtenberg and await to be flushed out by young explorers with the help of the Easter Bunny!

An area will be reserved for the egg hunt, and various slots are open on registration. The animation is accessible from around 3 years of age, and there's also a dedicated area for toddlers.

Set off in search of the golden egg!

The Lichtenberg Castle team is also offering a special quest. Explore the castle and its nooks and crannies to unearth the golden egg for a chance to win an exceptional chocolate prize.

The Lichtenberg Castle team is also offering a special quest.

A photo area decked out in Easter decor and hosted by a photographer is on offer throughout the day, so you can leave with some lovely souvenirs! The château's cafeteria also offers themed catering for young and old gourmands.

It will of course be possible to visit the castle, discover the new tour route and in particular the various exhibitions "Lichtenberg Castle, a perpetual construction site" and the original exhibition "The castle through the seasons" to explore 800 years of history and architecture of Lichtenberg Castle.

The perfect opportunity for a festive family outing to conquer chocolate!
