+ Description

Domaine La Commanderie: an intimate setting steeped in history in the heart of the medieval town of Boersch. This exceptional 15th-century listed building has been given a new lease of life, while retaining its original character.

Each flat has been designed with care and attention to detail. The building, nestled between courtyards and gardens, is a haven of peace.

The entire property, including its grounds, is enclosed and out of sight.

Located halfway between Strasbourg and Colmar, just 5 minutes from Rosheim and Obernai, the estate is the ideal base for exploring Alsace's villages, vineyards and hiking trails.
